CITY NEWS.

Knights Templar.

All the arrangements are about completed for the Knight-Templar's excursion to New Orleans.

That Barber Shop.

Gus Heim, the Eighth street barber, has secured the barber shop on board the steamer Thompson Dean, on her trip to New Orleans with the Knights-Templars.

Change of Time.

As will be by reference to their time-table in another column, the train on the Illinois Central railroad change at 12 o'clock today.

NOTTING PARTY.

A number of young people of this city went to Missouri on a motting excursion yesterday, and had a good time generally. They returned about eight o'clock last evening.

Dancing School.

Prof. Boden is about to open a dancing school in the Liberal Religious hall, which promises to be a successful enterprise.

The list of scholars is headed with the names of Mr. C. E. Woodward and Dr. R. S. Brigham.

Imported Wine.

F. M. Stockleth has received an importation of a wine called Oppenheimer's.

Oppenheimer's is a brandy.

Barely & Sons, manufacturers of the celebrated oriole wine.

There was some disappointment expressed by the members of the music committee of the Methodist church, that they did not succeed in perfecting arrangements to enable Messrs. Bardsley & Stearns to give their admirable rendition of the celebrated oratorio, "Gideon's Band." They were unable to procure the appropriate instrumental accompaniment—a hand-organ and a violincello of good tones, and in consequence this rare musical treat was postponed until the next entertainment, when the committee hope to be more successful. We must not forget to mention Mr. Bardsley's side performance on the organ, which elicited great applause and displayed a great deal of ability.

Disappointment.

Blooded Horse.

Mr. G. T. Whitlock purchased at Eldorado, Ills., a large brown full blooded messenger horse. It is said he can get over the ground in less than two forty. This may be true, but to demonstrate it to a certainty, we wouldn't object to taking a drive behind this nag with Tommy holding the ribbons.

Watch Stolen.

A thief met Daniel Doyle, a gentleman from the country, on Commercial avenue Friday night, and asked him to inform him of the hour. Mr. Doyle immediately drew out his watch which the thief grabbed and ran away.

Confidential Toys, Etc.

Persons wishing to purchase anything in the confectionery line should know that Phil Samp has a large assortment of fine candies, toys, etc., which will be sure to please buyers. Call on Phil before buying elsewhere.

Fire.

A fire was discovered in a clothes closet in the dwelling of Mr. A. Susanka, on Ohio Levee, about 10 o'clock, Friday night, and was not extinguished until the flames had eaten up clothing to the amount of $400, belonging to Mr. Susanka and family. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Ditching.

Street Superintendent Galligan has completed some good work on Eighth street, between Commercial and Washington avenues. Aside from the ditching he has constructed wooden sewers to connect with the main ones on both avenues, and has also made a ditch along Washington avenue, between Eighth and Sixth streets.

Coming.

The Geo. L. Fox (the original Humpty Dumpty) troupe will be in Cairo Friday and Saturday, and will give a matinee Saturday afternoon. Tickets will be on sale at Hartman's, commencing Wednesday morning. This is one of the best troupes travelling, and we hope to see them well patronized by the lovers of fun in Cairo.

Base Ball.

The Deliwild base ball club of Paducah went to New Orleans to play a match game of ball with the Robt. E. Lee club of that city. They played and got warmed to the time of fifty-six to nine. The Paducah club will do to play against a club like the Stars of Cairo, but they can't expect to win in a match with such a club as the Robt. E. Lee.

White & Greer.

White & Greer, dry goods merchants, have just received a full line of staple and fancy dry goods, notions, boots and shoes, which they offer to the public at very low prices. They extend a cordial invitation to all who are in need of goods in their line, and assure them they can do as well by them as any house in the city. Read their advertisement and Judge for yourselves.

Death.

Mrs. Helen Mechan, mother of James and Thomas Mechan, died at the residence of the former early Saturday morning, on Washington avenue, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets. The funeral will take place from the house of the same at half-past 10 o'clock p.m. today. The train leaves the foot of Eighth street at 2:30 p.m. for Villa Ridge. The friends of the family are invited to attend.

Quotations on Grain.

Wm. Blodger, representing D. W. Irwin & Co., says: December wheat, 90c; November corn, 75c; December corn, 73c; November oats, 49c; November barley, $1.30; Pork, $18.87; Lard, $12.40; 12.65.

Stuart & Ghoson's new arrival of dry goods are open and upon their shelves, and a more elegant lot of reversible black blouses, Paris blouses, gents undershirts and drawers, felt skirts, water-proof, cotton flannels, bleached and brown cottons, kid gloves, etc. It has been our good fortune to look upon them, but this time they even surpass themselves. Give them a call, you who are in need of dry goods, and you will profit by it.
